Dear Hiring Manager:

I am writing to express my interest in the position of Florist, advertised in being open at this time. I am a highly talented and experienced Florist with superior design skills and a strong creative flair. I am adept preparing flower, plant, dried flower, and silk arrangements, and can readily construct custom arrangements as needed to meet customer requests. Now I would like to bring my talents and ability to work for you.

For over five years I have been involved in the floral industry, designing beautiful and well-manicured bouquets and arrangements. I am adept at putting together custom bouquets for any occasion, and am able to work with customers to determine what arrangement and delivery will best fit their needs and budget. My experience also includes designing attractive and eye-catching store displays, which I am familiar with doing on a daily, seasonal, and holiday basis. I also offer skills in store management, customer service, and inventory management.

My training and experience includes working on arrangements both large and small, for walk-in and pre-order customers. My background in retail and floral design has taught me an important lesson - satisfy the customer and your business will grow. In a nutshell, my floral strengths are creative imagination and a strong business sense.

Greater details of my accomplishments and what I have to offer can be found on my website.

I will call your office in a few days to inquire about the possibility of a meeting.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely yours,
